

THE FEAST of the NATIVITY of
OUR LORD and SAVIOR JESUS CHRIST
CHRISTMAS EVE 2022

On this most holy night, in this place of beauty and grace:

If you are a visitor from afar, know that you have found a place of welcome, where your soul may find rest at last;

If you are making an annual visit to church,
know that we are blessed by your presence and you are loved;

If you are coming from the dark haunts of loneliness or loss this Christmas,
know that you have come home;

If you are a stranger this night, know that you are welcomed as Christ in our midst;

If you come full of joy, know that your joy will be protected;

If you come empty, know that your heart will be filled.

2. Accompagnato (Scott Crissman, Tenor) – “Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.” (Isaiab 40:1-3)

3. Air – “Ev’ry valley shall be exalted, and ev’ry mountain and hill made low: the crooked straight and the rough places plain.” (Isaiab 40:4)

4. Chorus – “And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.” (Isaiab 40:5)

8. Recitative (Anna Farley, Alto) – “Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Emmanuel, God with us.” (Isaiab 7:14; Matthew 1:23)

9. Air and Chorus – “O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up into the high mountain. O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!” (Isaiab 40:9); “Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.” (Isaiab 60:1)

12. Chorus – “For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.” (Isaiab 9:6)

20. Duet (Madeline Wright & Keaton Whitehurst) – “He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: and he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead those that are with young. (Isaiab 40:11); “Come unto him, all ye that labour, come unto him, that are heavy laden, and he will give you rest. Take his yoke upon you, and learn of him; for he is meek and lowly of heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.” (Matthew 11:28-29)

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 9:2-7

THE people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them light has shined.
You have multiplied the nation,
you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.
For the yoke of their burden,
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.
For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
His authority shall grow continually,
and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

- SING to the LORD a new song; *
 Sing to the LORD, all the whole earth.
 2 Sing to the LORD and bless his Name; *
 proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.
 3 Declare his glory among the nations *
 and his wonders among all peoples.
 4 For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised; *
 he is more to be feared than all gods.
 5 As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols; *
 but it is the LORD who made the heavens.
 6 Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his presence! *
 Oh, the power and the splendor of his sanctuary!
 7 Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the peoples; *
 ascribe to the LORD honor and power.
 8 Ascribe to the LORD the honor due his Name; *
 bring offerings and come into his courts.
 9 Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; *
 let the whole earth tremble before him.
 10 Tell it out among the nations: "The LORD is King! *
 he has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved;
 he will judge the peoples with equity."
 11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
 let the sea thunder and all that is in it; *
 let the field be joyful and all that is therein.
 12 Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before the LORD when he comes, *
 when he comes to judge the earth.
 13 He will judge the world with righteousness * and the peoples with his truth.

THE NEW TESTAMENT READING

Titus 3:4-7

WHEN the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Luke 2:1-20

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
Glory to you, Lord Christ

IN those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see— I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

“Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

THE SERMON

The Reverend Noah Van Niel

Silence may be observed, after which all stand.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Remaining standing.

In peace let us pray to the Lord.

Father, on this holy night your Son our Savior was born in human flesh.

Renew your Church as the Body of Christ. Holy God,

hear our prayer.

On this holy night there was no room for your Son in the inn.

Protect with your love those who have no home and all who live in poverty. Holy God,

hear our prayer.

On this holy night Mary, in the pain of labor, brought your Son to birth.

Hold in your hand all who are in pain or distress. Holy God,

hear our prayer.

On this holy night your Christ came as a light shining in the darkness.
Bring comfort to all who suffer in the sadness of our world. Holy God,
hear our prayer.

On this holy night the angels sang, 'Peace to God's people on earth.'
Strengthen those who work for peace and justice in Hampton Roads and in all the world.
Holy God,
hear our prayer.

On this holy night shepherds in the field heard good tidings of joy.
Give us grace to preach the gospel of Christ's redemption. Holy God,
hear our prayer.

On this night strangers found the Holy Family, and saw the baby lying in the manger.
Bless our homes and all whom we love. Holy God,
hear our prayer.

On this night heaven is come down to earth, and earth is raised to heaven.
Hold in your hand all those who have passed through death in the hope of your coming kingdom. Holy God,
hear our prayer.

On this holy night Christians the world over celebrate Christ's birth.
Open our hearts that he may be born in us today. Holy God,
hear our prayer.

Celebrant

Father, on this holy night angels and shepherds worshipped at the manger throne. Receive the worship we offer in fellowship with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Joseph, Saint Luke and all your saints through him who is your Word made flesh, our Savior Jesus. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant

Unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

Ho - ly, ho - ly,
ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The People remain standing as the Celebrant continues:

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.
AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

world, grant us peace.*

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

COMMUNION ANTHEMS

Sure on this Shining Night

Morten Lauridsen (b. 1943)

Melinda Van Niel, soprano & Joseph Brown, tenor

Sure on this shining night of starmade shadows round, Kindness must watch for me this side the ground.
The late year lies down the north. All is healed, all is health.
High summer holds the earth. Hearts all whole.
Sure on this shining night I weep for wonder Wandering far alone of shadows on the stars.

-James Agee

O magnum mysterium

Morten Lauridsen

O magnum mysterium,
et admirabile sacramentum,
ut animalia viderent Dominum natum,
iacentem in praesepio!
Beata Virgo, cujus viscera
meruerunt portare
Dominum Iesum Christum.
Alleluia!

*O great mystery,
and wonderful sacrament,
that animals should see the newborn Lord,
lying in a manger!
Blessed is the virgin whose womb was worthy to bear
the Lord, Jesus Christ.
Alleluia!*

-Responsorial chant for Matins on Christmas Day

Away in a manger

*Traditional Normandy tune
arr. Reginald Jacques (1894-1969)*

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.

The cattle are lowing, the baby awakes,
But little Lord Jesus no crying he makes.
I love thee, Lord Jesus! Look down from the sky,
And stay by my side until morning is nigh.

Be near me, Lord Jesus; I ask you to stay
Close by me for ever, and love me, I pray.
Bless all the dear children in thy tender care,
And fit us for heaven, to live with you there.

*After communion, the acolytes distribute light to the congregation.
Please only tip unlit candles, and extinguish them before the final hymn.*

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

The People stand.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us
as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE CHRISTMAS BLESSING

Please hold up your candles as the Celebrant imparts the Christmas Blessing.

May Christ, who by his Incarnation gathered into one things earthly and heavenly, fill you with his joy and peace;
and the blessing of God Almighty:
The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be upon you, and remain with you this night and always. Amen.
