People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray. O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST LESSON

Esther 7:1-6, 9-10; 9:20-22

THE king and Haman went in to feast with Queen Esther. On the second day, as they were drinking wine, the king again said to Esther, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled." Then Queen Esther answered, "If I have won your favor, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me-- that is my petition-- and the lives of my people-- that is my request. For we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. If we had been sold merely as slaves, men and women, I would have held my peace; but no enemy can compensate for this damage to the king."

Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther, “Who is he, and where is he, who has presumed to do this?” Esther said, “A foe and enemy, this wicked Haman!” Then Haman was terrified before the king and the queen. Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs in attendance on the king, said, “Look, the very gallows that Haman has prepared for Mordecai, whose word saved the king, stands at Haman's house, fifty cubits high.” And the king said, “Hang him on that.” So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the anger of the king abated. Mordecai recorded these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far, enjoining them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar and also the fifteenth day of the same month, year by year, as the days on which the Jews gained relief from their enemies, and as the month that had been turned for them from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, days for sending gifts of food to one another and presents to the poor.

THE SECOND LESSON

James 5:13-20

ARE any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest.

My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

People Thanks be to God.

HYMN 609: Where cross the crowded ways of life

Gardiner

THE GOSPEL

Mark 9:38-50

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

JOHAN said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us." But Jesus said, "Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us. For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward. If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched. For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

p. 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, FORM V

p. 389

In peace, let us pray to the Lord, saying, "Lord, have mercy."

For the holy Church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the day of your coming, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For Michael our Presiding Bishop, for Susan our own Bishop, for all bishops and other ministers, and for all the holy people of God, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who fear God and believe in you, Lord Christ, that our divisions may cease, and that all may be one as you and the Father are one, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those in positions of public trust that they may serve justice, and promote the dignity and freedom of every person, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who live and work in this community, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For a blessing upon all human labor, and for the right use of the riches of creation, that the world may be freed from poverty, famine, and disaster, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer; for refugees, prisoners, and all who are in danger; that they may be relieved and protected, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For this congregation, that we may be delivered from hardness of heart, and show forth your glory in all that we do, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our enemies and those who wish us harm, and for all whom we have injured or offended, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who have commended themselves to our prayers; for our families, friends, and neighbors; that being freed from anxiety, they may live in joy, peace, and health, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who have died in the communion of your Church, and those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

To you, O Lord our God.

The Priest adds the concluding prayers and collect.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

p. 360

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor. (please kneel)

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

FORMATION

Make Me an Instrument of Peace: A Guide to Civil Discourse – Sundays, 9:15 a.m., Lloyd Hall

The words of St. Francis' iconic prayer will frame an important conversation on the spiritual practice of civil discourse in our Fall Adult Forum. Developed by the Episcopal Office of Government Relations, Make Me an Instrument of Peace is designed to equip people with the tools to engage in the art of Civil Discourse - a skill that is desperately needed in our present life. Over 5 weeks, we'll hear from presenters who are well versed in civil discourse, and learn the fundamentals of this skill in the hopes of helping us faithfully engage in the difficult conversations that surround us. We'll also celebrate the fact that churches are what are known as 3rd spaces - spaces that are separate from our work and home lives which allow us to engage with others who we might not otherwise encounter. What might our call be as a place of divine encounter? And how might the tool of civil discourse help us honor that call? This class will be facilitated by the parish clergy and meets on Sundays during the 9:15 a.m. formation hour.

Fellowship & Outreach Event for kids ages 9-11 – TODAY, September 29, following the 10:15 a.m service

Children ages 9-11 are invited to gather in Lower Lloyd Hall today for a special time of fellowship and outreach following the 10:15 a.m. service. We'll have pizza and get to know one another as we make dog treats to be distributed at the Blessing of the Animals on October 5. This age group has begun meeting during the 9:15 a.m. formation hour on Sundays in Lower Lloyd Hall. Following formation on Sundays, you'll find them in the front pew on the pulpit side for the 10:15 a.m. service. All children ages 9-11 are welcome to join in the fun after church today, even if they haven't yet had the opportunity to be with us for formation on Sunday mornings. We hope this variety of offerings for our not yet middle schoolers will help them to know one another and recognize their important role in keeping this community. See Rachel Welch or Kathy Hanna for more information.

Good Shepherd Episcopal Church, Norfolk is hosting a screening of the documentary The Philadelphia Eleven at the Naro Theater on October 5 at 10:00 a.m. Tickets are $10 and can be purchased at the link below. The Philadelphia Eleven tells the story of the first 11 women ordained to the priesthood in The Episcopal Church in a church in Philadelphia in 1974, shattering the so-called stained-glass ceiling. Church canons did not allow for women's ordination at the time, so their ordination was an act of bravery and protest. Now 50 years on, this documentary examines this important story in the life of our Church and celebrates these women's courage to follow their God given calls to ministry. Find more information and purchase tickets here at goodshepherdnorfolk.org/event/philadelphia-11. Questions about the event should be directed to Good Shepherd.

Additionally, they will recognize the crucial efforts of frontline professionals who tirelessly work to provide hope amid pervasive violence. In light of the pastoral letter we shared with the parish this week we encourage you to attend this important evening. We also will have a number of our choir members singing in the community choir that night.
